UNIVERSITY NOTES.

HARVARD NECROLOGY.

Compiled by WILLIAM HOPKINS TILLINGHAST,
Assistant Librarian,
Editor of the Quinquennial Catalogue.

*.* Graduates and Class Secretaries are requested to send to the writer class reports, both new and old, and all newspapers which contain obituaries and other notices of Harvard alumni. It is important to have the places of birth and death, and, in addition to the year, to have the month and day of the month.

When the place of birth or death is unknown, the place of residence at the time of entering College or of decease, if known, is given within brackets.

The figures denoting age indicate the last completed year of life.

Graduates.

Hon. George Bancroft, whose death is recorded below, became Senior Alumnus after the death of Samuel E. Sewall, of the same class, 20 December, 1888; Mr. Bancroft was also the last surviving member of his class. Rev. Frederick A. Farley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the last living member of the Class of 1818, is now Senior Alumnus; he was born 25 June, 1800. Of the Class of 1819 one member only, Mr. George H. Snelling, of Boston, is known to be living. Of George Salmon Bourne, and Thomas Leaming Caldwell, whose names are not starred in the Quinquennial, nothing is known; they are thought not to be living, but information about them is earnestly desired. Mr. Caldwell was for a short time after graduation tutor at the University of Transylvania, in Kentucky, where Dr. Charles Caldwell, of Philadelphia, was then Professor of Materia Medica. Of the Class of 1820, Dr. W. H. Furness, of Philadelphia, is the only survivor, while the Class of 1821 is represented by Rev. William Withington, of Washington, the oldest living graduate; 1822, by Mr. S. W. Chandler, of Philadelphia; 1823, by Mr. George Peabody, of Salem, and Mr. W. G. Prince, of Dedham; 1824, by Rev. A. B. Muzzey, of Cambridge, and Mr. George Wheatland, of Salem; and 1825, by Mr. F. O. Dorr, of Troy, N. Y. The Class of 1826 numbers four living members.

I. GENERAL RULES OF THE LIBRARY.

ADOPTED BY THE LIBRARY COUNCIL, DEC. 11, 1889.

1. The Library is open every week-day except Thanksgiving day, Christmas day, the Twenty-second of February, Fast day, Memorial day, and the Fourth of July, from 9 A.M. till 5 P.M., or till sunset when that is before 5. On Sundays in term time it is open from 1 till 5 P.M. for readers only.

2. The alcoves and stack are not open to the students or to the public; but a moderate number of cards of admission may be given, at the discretion of the Librarian, to students recommended by an officer of instruction, such cards admitting the holders to specified classifications only of the Library.

3. Not more than three volumes at one time are allowed, except at the discretion of the Librarian, to borrowers not officers of the University.

4. No borrower, not an officer of instruction, shall keep any book belonging to the Library more than one month; but any borrower may renew a book for fitting reasons.

The use of books much in demand may be restricted by the Librarian to seven days, or to fourteen days.

Any person, on expressing his desire to obtain from the Library a book already lent and not of this restricted class, shall be entitled to prompt notice of its return, and it will be held subject to his order for three days.

Any borrower may be notified that a particular book held by him has been applied for.

For officers, the limit of keeping a book shall be three months; but renewals can be made. Officers may renew, by messenger or by post, books charged to them, without bringing the same to the Library.

5. Books may be taken from the Library only after they have been charged at the Delivery Desk. Persons sending for books must sign and date an order, giving the titles of the books desired.

6. Borrowers remain responsible for books so long as the books are charged to them.

7. No borrower shall write or mark in a book belonging to the Library; and any damage to, or loss of, books shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Librarian.

The Library does not furnish dictionaries for continuous use by students; and does not lend manuals or texts for use in class-rooms.

8. The Librarian may withdraw from circulation all books designated by officers of instruction as needed for reference by their classes. These reserved books, unbound periodicals, and books of reference in the Delivery Room, are allowed to be taken out for use over night; but they must be returned before 9 o'clock the next morning. Reserved books taken out Saturday night may be kept till Monday morning; unbound periodicals and books of reference must be returned Sunday at 1 o'clock. The Librarian shall use his discretion in regard to the lending of works which are rare, costly, or unsuited for circulation.

9. Unbound periodical publications shall be used only in the Library, except as provided under section 8, and except that officers of instruction may take them out after they have been in the Library for four weeks; but such officers can take them earlier for reasons deemed sufficient by the Librarian,—provided that in all cases unbound serials are subject to the recall of the Librarian for binding.

10. Borrowers not officers of the University, who leave Cambridge for an absence of more than one week must first return all borrowed books.

11. No student shall be admitted to the first degree, nor any resident Bachelor to a second degree, till he has exhibited to the Bursar a certificate from the Librarian that he has returned in good order, or replaced, every book that he has borrowed; or, in default thereof, has deposited with the Librarian double the value of it in money; or, if it belong to a set, double the value of the whole set. And no student shall be permitted to take up his bond, or shall be discharged from his responsibilities by the Bursar, till he has obtained such certificate.

12. Infraction of the rules of the Library will subject the delinquent to a suspension of his privileges, or to such other penalty as the nature of the case may require.

II. ADDITIONAL RULES AFFECTING PERSONS NOT CONNECTED WITH THE UNIVERSITY.

tematic investigations in any department of knowledge may be allowed at the discretion of the Librarian the full use of the Library for a period not exceeding three months without fee; and any person by vote of the Corporation.

4. Officers of the University are considered entitled to the first use of books, and such preference shall be accorded them by the Librarian, who shall also, at their request, recall any books that may have been lent to other persons using the Library.

** Blanks for making application for use of the Library may be had at the Delivery Desk in the Library. Such application should be addressed to the Librarian, who will return a reply by mail.

THE ORATORS AND POETS
OF
PHI BETA KAPPA, ALPHA OF MASSACHUSETTS, WITH A
BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DESCRIPTION OF THOSE ORATIONS AND POEMS
WHICH ARE IN HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY.

BY WILLIAM HOPKINS TILLINGHAST, Assistant Librarian.

*.* This list is based upon the record of orators and poets given in the Catalogue of the Harvard chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. The revision incident upon the preparation of a new edition of this Catalogue has shown that the indication of publication given in the edition of 1885 is not trustworthy; eight or ten more names have now been marked, but it is possible that other performances, unknown to the compiler, have appeared in print.

It will be seen that, in several cases, where publication is indicated, no copy has been found in the College Library. Anyone knowing of the existence of an oration or poem not recorded here will greatly oblige the compiler by informing him of the fact, whether the publication be in the form of a pamphlet, or an article in a periodical.

A star is affixed to the names of those orators and poets whose productions have been printed or published, when no copy of the performance has been found in the College Library.

MEETING OF JUNE 1, 1891.—The following letter was read to the Board:—

"BOSTON. June 1, 1891.

TO THE PRESIDENT AND FELLOWS OF HARVARD COLLEGE:—

GENTLEMEN,—It is my wish with your consent, permanently to connect with Harvard University the names of my father, J. HUNTINGTON WOLCOTT, and of my brother, HUNTINGTON FROTHINGHAM WOLCOTT.

My father passed the greater part of a long and honorable life in this city, and gave constant evidence of his generous and enlightened concern in all matters touching the higher interests of the community. He was a useful and public-spirited citizen. My brother—as did others in that great crisis—furnished a type of the ideal American youth in the war of the Rebellion. Pure, manly, brave and ardently patriotic, he received from Governor Andrew, Oct. 23, 1864, the commission of Lieutenant before he was 19 years of age, served with conspicuous gallantry under Sheridan in the arduous campaign to the south of Richmond which forced the surrender of Lee, and at the close of the war, came home to die of malarial fever after a few months of severe and brilliant service. Such lives are worthy of commemoration.

The 13th section of my father's will is as follows:—'I give unto my aforesaid son, Roger Wolcott, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, to be appropriated and expended by him for such charitable purposes as he shall think fit.'

Before his death I made known to him my wish to devote a portion of this amount to a memorial of his eldest son in connection with Harvard University, and he expressed his cordial approval of my purpose.

Of the sum so left to me by my father I wish to place in your hands $15,000, and to add thereto a further sum of $5000, constituting two funds of $10,000 each, to be held by you for the following purposes and on the following trusts:—

First:—Ten thousand dollars to be received and known as the J. HUNTINGTON WOLCOTT Fund, the income to be expended as nearly as may be in each year in the purchase of books of permanent value for the University Library, the preference in selection to be given to works in the departments of History, Political Economy, and Sociology.

Second:—Ten thousand dollars to be received and known as the HUNTINGTON FROTHINGHAM WOLCOTT Fund, the income to be expended by the Trustees of the Peabody Museum of American Archaeology and Ethnology, or their successors, for the promotion of archaeological and ethnological research and exploration, the purchase of objects illustrative thereof or the publication of matter relating thereto.

I have pleasure in noting that there is included in this amount a sum received after my brother's death in payment of his military services.

It is my belief that for many years the Western Hemisphere will furnish a rich field as yet almost untilled, for the prosecution of such investigations, but it is not my intention to restrict by geographical lines the uses to which the income may be applied.

It would in no way conflict with my wishes if those who have the disposition of the income of this fund should in their discretion decide to allow the income to accumulate for one or more years in order more fully to carry out the purposes of the trust. I can easily conceive that this may be desirable either for the equipment of an expedition for exploration, the purchase of collections or for other purposes within the scope of the trust. But I request that whether the income be expended as it accrues or be allowed thus to accumulate for future use, a vote of the Trustees setting forth the disposition of it be entered upon their records as often as once yearly.

In asking your acceptance of the foregoing trusts, I beg to add that my action has been chiefly influenced by what I believe would have been the wishes of my father and brother.

If I shall be notified of your assent to my proposal, I shall have much pleasure in paying you the full amount $20,000.

I am, Gentlemen, with much respect, very truly yours,

(Signed) ROBERT WOLCOTT.

And it was

Voted, that Mr. ROGER WOLCOTT's offer be gratefully accepted, and that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to him therefor, with the assurance that the College will gladly perpetuate the names of J. HUNTINGTON WOLCOTT and HUNTINGTON FROTHINGHAM WOLCOTT by the establishment of the Funds as proposed.

Voted, that until further action of this Board a meeting of the Corporation shall be held in Boston at 11 o'clock A.M. on the day before Commencement in each year instead of the early meeting at Cambridge on the morning of Commencement Day.

The resignation of GEORGE P. BAKER, Jr., A.B., as Instructor in English, was received and accepted.

FROM THE RECORDS OF THE OVERSEERS.

SPECIAL MEETING OF MARCH 25, 1891.—Concurred in various appointments made by the President and Fellows.

STATED MEETING OF APRIL 8, 1891.

Voted, that the Board of Overseers does not concur with the Corporation in its approval of the first and second proposals of the College Faculty, viz. :—

1. "That the requirements for the degree of A.B. be expressed, under suitable regulations with regard to length of residence and distribution of work, in terms of courses of study satisfactorily accomplished.

2. That the number of courses required for the degree be sixteen." Yeas. 20. Nays. 1.

Voted, that the Board of Overseers concurs with the Corporation in its approval of the third proposal of the College Faculty, provided it be amended by striking out the words "the foregoing requirement of sixteen courses," and substituting therefor the words "the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts," so that it shall read as follows :—

"That when a student enters College there shall be placed to his credit towards satisfying the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts (1) any advanced studies on which he has passed in his admission examination beyond the number required for admission, and (2) any other college studies which he has anticipated." Passed unanimously.

Moved, that the Board of Overseers concurs with the Corporation in its approval of the fourth proposal of the College Faculty "that a student may be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the middle as well as at the end of the academic year." Yeas—President and Treasurer of the University, Messrs. Putnam, F. C. Lowell, Hoar, Green, Wolcott, G. B. Shattuck, Rawle—9. Nays—Messrs. Lee, R. M. Morse, R. S. Peabody, Russell, Beaman, Hemenway, A. P. Peabody, Saltonstall, Wetmore, Bacon, Torrey, Sprague, Lincoln—13.

Moved, that the Board of Overseers recommend the modification of the present regulations of the College Faculty in accordance with the following proposition :—

That a senior intending to enter the Medical School to take the full four years' course therein may, under proper supervision, include in the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts the courses of physiology and anatomy required in the first year of the Medical School, each of said courses to count as one full elective course. Yeas—Messrs. Putnam, R. S. Peabody, Wolcott, G. B. Shattuck, Sprague—5. Nays—President and Treasurer of the University, Messrs. Coolidge, Lee, R. M. Morse, F. C. Lowell, Hoar, Russell, Green, Beaman, Hemenway, A. P. Peabody, Saltonstall, Wetmore, Bacon, Torrey, Lincoln, Rawle—18.

Moved, that in the opinion of the Board of Overseers it is advisable that the Faculty facilitate the attainment of the degree of Bachelor of Arts, upon petition, in less time than four years, especially by those students intending to take professional or graduate courses of study, by any means which do not involve either a reduction in the number or difficulty of the courses required for the degree, or an undue hurrying of the students' work. Yeas — President and Treasurer of the University, Messrs. Putnam, Wolcott, Shattuck — 5. Nays — Coolidge, Lee, R. M. Morse, F. C. Lowell, Hoar, R. S. Peabody, Russell, Green, Beaman, Hemenway, A. P. Peabody, Saltonstall, Wetmore, Bacon, Torrey, Sprague, Lincoln, Rawle — 18.

Concurred with the Corporation in the election of LE BARON RUSSELL BRIGGS, A.M., as Dean of Harvard College.

Dr. H. P. WALCOTT resigned his membership of the Board, and Mr. GEORGE W. WALES declined to serve on the Committee on the Library and on Indo-Iranian languages.

SPECIAL MEETING OF MAY 27, 1891. — Concurred with the President and Fellows in making various appointments.

The report of the Committee to visit the Physical Laboratory was presented and laid over.

Upon the following vote of the Association of the Alumni, the Committee on Elections reported a scheme of voting, and this was ordered to be printed for the use of the Board.

"Voted, that the Association of the Alumni are of the opinion that some change in the system of voting for Overseers, whereby the confusion resulting from the present system can be avoided, is desirable; and that they respectfully request the Board of Overseers to adopt rules for the conduct of the elections for Overseers by which some form of the Australian ballot shall be the only ballot which shall be received by the inspectors of elections; always providing that the nomination of candidates for Overseers shall remain with the Alumni under such regulations as this Association shall prescribe; and if the Board of Overseers have no authority to adopt such rules, that they be requested to apply to the Legislature for the requisite authority."

Upon the two following votes of the Association of the Alumni:—

Voted, that no action is necessary.

"Voted, that this Association respectfully request the Board of Overseers to consider the subject of allowing Alumni of five years standing to vote by letter at all elections of Overseers."

"Voted, that the Board of Overseers be requested to consider whether it is desirable that any change should be sought in the act of the Legislature authorizing the election of Overseers by the Alumni, and providing that no one who holds the degree of A.B. from this College shall vote until five years from his graduation, although he may in the meantime have received a higher degree."

GENTLEMEN, — It gives me great pleasure to present to the University the Gate just completed at the entrance between Holworthy and Thayer. * Nothing is known of Nehemiah Ambrose, nor of his classmate, Joshua Ambrose, before they entered college. Both went to England after graduation and were settled in the ministry in Lancashire, Joshua at Darby [West Derby?], Nehemiah at Kirkby. In 1662 Nehemiah was ejected for non-conformity, while Joshua conformed.—SIBLEY, Biographical Sketches of Graduates of Harvard University, i, 381.

The further information now printed is derived from Mr. F. W. Dunston, of Salisbury, Eng., a descendant of Joshua Ambrose, who writes under date, 24 July, 1891: "I have recently obtained the following information from the sources below indicated: Chester district Probate Registry.—Will of Nehemiah Ambrose of Toxteth Park in the County of Lancaster, Clark. Dated 2 Sep. 1668. Testator mentions his wife, Hannah, and his children, Nathaniel, Judith, and Hannah, and he appoints as his executors 'his well-beloved friends and kinsmen,' Michael Briscoe, clerk; Joshua Ambrose, his 'natural brother'; James Jerome, of Liverpool, merchant; and Jonathan Williamson. The will was, in the first instance, proved 27 Oct. 1668 (the date of N. A.'s death being thus very nearly fixed) by all the executors except Joshua A., to whom power of probate was reserved, and who took upon himself the executorship in 1680.

"It appears that the word 'natural' at the above dates was not used in its present sense of illegitimate.

"I think there can be no reasonable doubt that the testator 'Nehemiah' and his brother 'Joshua' are identical with your 'Ambros senior' and 'Ambros junior.'"

It may be noted that Richard Mather, father of Increase Mather, was the minister at Dingle chapel in Toxteth Park from 1618 to 1634. In 1635 he came to America, and in 1636 became the first minister of Dorchester. The college expenses of the Ambrose brothers were paid by "Mr. Glover, of Dorchester," probably Mr. John Glover, one of the leading men and churchmembers of Dorchester; he was also a Lancashire man, from Rainhill. Isaac Ambrose, a Puritan minister of some note, descended from the Ambroses of Ambrose Hall, in Westby, Lancashire, was of nearly the same age as Mather and Glover, and matriculated at Brazenose College, Oxford, in 1621, three years after Mather, according to the sketch of his life sent to the church at Dorchester by his son, had left it to go to Toxteth Park. Isaac Ambrose was evicted from Garstang in 1662, and died in 1664, at the age of 60. It is not improbable that he was a relative of the Ambroses of Harvard College.

Joshua Ambrose was vicar of Childwall in Lancashire, 1664-65 to 1688.

Judge Story, who bequeathed this volume to the college, has added the following note:—"This volume belonged to the library of President Washington, & the notes are in his own handwriting. I received it from his nephew Mr. Justice Washington, of the supreme court of the United States, with the understanding that he should be at liberty, if he wished, to reclaim it, at any time during his life; & that otherwise it was to be deemed an absolute present from him to me. I place a high value on it; & hope that the greatest attention will be paid to preserve it as a curious & interesting relic. JOSEPH STORY. Decr. 14. 1823." There is also in the book a memorandum signed by the President of the University at the date of its receipt, March 5, 1847: "It is not to be removed from the library without a written order from the President. EDWARD EVERETT."

Sparks in his Writings of Washington, vol. xi., having access to the volume, while it was still in the possession of Judge Story, printed some of the annotations, but exercised over Washington's language his customary supervision.

He confined his selection to the annotations on the body of Monroe's book. At the same time he copied those upon the appendix, and this copy went with Sparks's library to Cornell University. From this copy Gilman printed those annotations which Washington had made on the appendix, and they appear in the James Monroe of the American Statesmen series. The same want of scrupulous care in transcribing from Washington's script is apparent here as in those parts which Sparks printed.

A CLASSIFIED LIST OF BOOKS

RELATING TO

BRITISH MUNICIPAL HISTORY.

By CHARLES GROSS, PH.D.

The following list is a selection from a bibliography comprising nearly 4000 titles, which I have almost ready for the press. The works relate, wholly or in part, to British municipal history, in other words, to the governmental or constitutional history of the cities and boroughs of Great Britain. I have tried to make the list a useful guide, not merely to librarians and general readers, but also to investigators of the whole or any particular phase of the subject. For a general criticism of the literature of the subject the reader may consult my essay "A plea for reform in the study of English municipal history" (Papers of the American historical association, vol. v.).

The asterisks indicate a smaller selection of books of prime importance. H signifies that a book is in the Library of Harvard College. Books not in the Harvard College Library which may be found in the Boston Public Library are indicated by a B.

PART I.—GENERAL AUTHORITIES.

Bibliographies.

The following two bibliographies are the most useful, but they are very incomplete, and do not guide the reader through the labyrinth of works on municipal history. For fuller lists of books relating to particular towns, the special county bibliographies should be consulted.

ANDERSON, J. P. The book of British topography. London. 1881. 4° and 8°. H

GOMME, G. L. The literature of local institutions. London. 1886. 16°. H

Public Records and other Original Authorities.

All the sources mentioned below are invaluable for the study of general municipal history. The most important are the Reports of the Corporations commission and of the Historical manuscripts commission. Most of the publications of the Record commission are also useful, e. g. the "Statutes of the realm," "Rotuli parliamentorum," "Quo warranta rolls," "Rymer's Foedera," etc.

See below under "Parliamentary representation," "Gilds," "Cinque Ports," "Wales," "Ireland," and "Scotland," for original authorities relating especially to these subjects; see also Part II., under the names of particular boroughs.

ANCIENT laws and institutes of England. Edited by Benj. Thorpe. (Record commission.) [London.] 1840. f°. H

DIPLOMATARUM anglicum aevi saxonici. Edited by Benj. Thorpe. London. 1865. 8°. H

Useful for the study of Anglo-Saxon gilds.

*DOMESDAY book. 4 vols. London. 1783-1816. f°. H

Volumes iii. and iv. published by the Record commission.

GESETZE (Die) der angelsachsen. Herausgegeben von Reinhold Schmid. Leipzig. 1832. 8°. [Second edition. Leipzig. 1858. 8°.] H

This, like Thorpe's Ancient laws, contains most of the material extant relating to Anglo-Saxon boroughs. The second edition is far superior to the first.

*REPORTS of the commissioners appointed to inquire into the municipal corporations in England and Wales. First report, with appendix. (Parliam. papers, 1835, vols. xxiii.-xxvi.) 4 vols. London. 1835. f°. H

*— Reports upon certain boroughs. (Parliam. papers, 1837-38, vol. xxxv.) London. 1837-38. f°. H

*— First report of the commissioners appointed to inquire into the municipal corporations in Ireland. (Parliam. papers, 1835, vols. xxvi., xxviii.; 1836, vol. xxiv.) [Report and appendix, in four parts.] 3 vols. London. 1835-36. f°. H

*— General report of the commissioners... in Scotland. (Parliam. papers, 1835, vol. xxi.; 1836, vol. xxiii.) 2 vols. London. 1835-36. f°. H

Accounts of General Municipal History.

a. — Principal Treatises.

There is no good general history of English municipalities. Brady is sophistical and antiquated. Honest Madox is still helpful, for he gives us numerous extracts from unprinted public records. The material in Merewether and Stephens is valuable, but many of their general conclusions are untenable. Thompson's little book is readable but fragmentary.

BRADY, Robert. An historical treatise of cities and burghs. London. 1690. f. [Second edition. London. 1704. f. New edition. London. 1777. 8°. This last edition has errors and omissions.] H

*MADOX, Thomas. Firma burgi, or an historical essay concerning the cities, towns, and boroughs of England. London. 1726. f. H

*MEREWETHER, H. A., and STEPHENS, A. J. The history of the boroughs and municipal corporations of the United Kingdom. 3 vols. London. 1835. 8°. H

THOMPSON, James. An essay on English municipal history. London. 1867. 8°. H

b. — Short Accounts.

Feilden gives the main facts in a very few pages. Gneist's views are interesting, but he follows Merewether and Stephens too closely.

FEILDEN, H. St. Clair. A short constitutional history of England. Oxford. 1882. 8°. [Second edition. Oxford. 1887. 8°] H

GLASSON, Ernest. Histoire du droit et des institutions politiques de l'Angleterre. 6 vols. Paris. 1882-83. 8°. H

By Periods.

a. — Anglo-Saxon Period.

Stubbs gives the most trustworthy account of Anglo-Saxon boroughs. Kemble is fuller and more readable, but should be used with caution; he tends to confuse the municipal history of England with that of the Continent. Cooté and Wright attempt (in my opinion, without success) to show the survival of Roman institutions in Anglo-Saxon boroughs. Stubbs and Green maintain the opposite view.

WRIGHT, Thomas. On the existence of municipal privileges under the Anglo-Saxons. (Archæologia, vol. xxxii. London. 1847. 4°) H

b. — From the Norman Conquest to 1485.

Stubbs is the best guide for this period.

c. — From 1485 to 1789.

Merewether and Stephens give a detailed account of this period, and are more trustworthy here than in the earlier portions of their treatise.

d. — The Nineteenth Century.

See also below, under "Parliamentary representation." May and Walpole contain good general accounts of this period. Vine is fuller for the years 1835-1879. Chalmers and Escott describe the present municipal organization of England. For some recent changes, see Chambers and Holdsworth.

Parliamentary Representation.

a. — General.

The most important original sources are "Parliamentary writs" and "Rotuli parliamentorum." The "Reports on the dignity of a peer" contain a detailed history of English legislative assemblies, and also many extracts from public records illustrating the subject. Gneist gives a short general account of parliamentary history. Cox and Riess are valuable for particular phases of the subject.

b. — Parliamentary Reform.

May and Walpole (see above, under "Seventeenth century") give good short accounts. Of the general histories of parliamentary reform, 1832-1884, Houston's is the best. Molesworth and Rochemont are the fullest authorities for the reform of 1832; Cox, for that of 1867; and Luce, for that of 1884.

Gilds.

Many documents relating to gilds are printed by Smith and Gross. Walford's book is encyclopaedic and superficial. Brentano's sketch is brilliant but unreliable. Salvioni follows pretty closely in Brentano's tracks. Von Ochenkowski is helpful for the study of craft fraternities. Ashley, Cunningham, and Seligman give good short accounts of the whole subject. ### County Histories (England).

London.

It is difficult to make a selection from the vast array of books relating to London. To supplement the list given below, the reader should consult the Catalogue of the London Guildhall library (1889). Lottie's History is the best general account; Norton's Commentaries is the best constitutional history; Pulling's Treatise contains the fullest information concerning particular laws and customs; Birch gives the charters of the city; Herbert, Arundell, and the City of London Livery companies' commission's report are the best general authorities on the Livery companies; Welch gives information concerning works on particular companies or gilds; Firth's Municipal London is the ablest treatise on municipal reform; and the Report of the Municipal corporations commission (1887), the Monumenta Guildhallae, and Riley's Memorials are particularly valuable for the study of London municipal history.

FROM THE RECORDS OF THE CORPORATION.

MEETING OF OCTOBER 26, 1891. — Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to Mrs. HENRY DRAPER of New York for her additional gift of $833.33 received October 13, 1891, towards the expenses at the Observatory of Harvard University on account of the Draper Memorial.

Voted, that so much of the Rotch gift for an electrical workshop as shall not be needed for the building may be spent for apparatus, etc., by Instructor ADAMS with the approval of the Dean of the Lawrence Scientific School.

Judge ENDICOTT made a written report upon the matters referred to him on May 25, 1891, in relation to the Dudgeon Lectures. His report was adopted and it was thereupon Voted, to make answer as follows to Professor FRANCIS J. CHILD and the other petitioners for the suppression of the third lecture against Catholicism: —

"The Corporation has considered with much care the remonstrance signed by fifty-eight members of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, in which they urge the suppression of the third Dudgeon lecture, the subject of which is the Romish Church, and in substance declare that the continuance of this lecture at the present time would be both impolitic and unbecoming, and even more than unbecoming, it would be 'indecent and unjust'; and doubtless referring to the strong and violent language used by Chief Justice Dudley in the third clause of his will in pointing out what he considered the errors, idolatry, tyranny, usurpations, superstitions, heresies, and crying wickedness in high places of the Church of Rome, they recommend not only the suppression of this lecture, as one of the four directed to be given in his will, but they also in substance declare that the surrender of the whole trust and the abandonment of the lectures would be a slight evil compared with the maintenance of this trust, if this third lecture against Catholicism is continued.

"The Corporation cannot concur in this conclusion and is of opinion that the suppression of one of the four lectures provided for under this bequest would be a breach of trust which might amount to a renunciation of the whole trust; for refusal to perform a part of the duty imposed upon and accepted by the College might well be considered a breach of the entire trust — a material change having been made therein.

"The Corporation must decline therefore to take the steps proposed in the remonstrance either in whole or in part.

"The language used by the Chief Justice, who was a just and sincere man, is language characteristic of the time when animosities among religious sects were bitter and intense; and if he were to draw the clause to-day, it would be couched in different terms and would breathe a very different spirit. No lecturer could now with propriety use such language, adopt such views, or be inspired by such a spirit, as is disclosed by the expressions of the Chief Justice in drawing the third clause of his will. At the present time this subject should be and doubtless will be treated historically. Great changes have taken place in the opinions of theologians, scholars, and historians, not only in regard to the attitude of the Catholic Church, but also in regard to natural and revealed religion and the ordination of ministers; and the opportunity may well be taken in delivering this third lecture to soothe and allay the animosities and bitterness of the past, and deal with these questions in a broad, scholarly, and magnanimous spirit."

Voted, to appoint HAROLD CLARENCE ERNST, M.D., Assistant Professor of Bacteriology for five years from September 1, 1891.

Voted, to reappoint FRANK WILLIAM TAUSSIG, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Political Economy for five years from September 1, 1891.

Voted, to proceed to the election of a Professor of Parasites and Parasitic Diseases, whereupon ballots being given in it appeared that WILLIAM FISKE WHITNEY, M.D., was elected.

Voted, to communicate this election to the Board of Overseers that they may consent thereto if they see fit.

Voted, to appoint the following Instructors for 1891-92: ROBERT WHEELER WILLSON, Ph.D., in Physics; THEODORE HENCKELS in French; JAMES GRAY LATHROP in Athletics.

Voted, to appoint HARRY FLETCHER BROWN, A.B., Assistant in Chemistry B for 1891-92.

MEETING OF NOVEMBER 9, 1891. — The Treasurer reported that he had received from JACOB H. SCHIFF, Esq., the sum of $250 to be used for the encouragement of the study of Semitic languages; also $350 to be used for a scholarship for 1891-92 in the Semitic department, — and it was Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to Mr. SCHIFF for his continued liberality to the Semitic department.

Voted, to grant the free use of Appleton Chapel on Sunday mornings and afternoons to the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church until their new church building is finished.

Voted, that the courses in Philosophy 2 and 20a be counted as laboratory courses with a fee of $5 each.

Voted, to reappoint FRANK BREWSTER, LL.B., Instructor in the Peculiarities of Massachusetts Law and Practice for 1891-92.

Voted, to appoint HENRY FISKE LEONARD, M.D., M.D.V., Clinical Lecturer in the School of Veterinary Medicine for 1891-92.

Voted, to appoint HARWOOD HUNTINGTON Assistant in Chemistry 1 for 1891-92.

The petition of Miss MARION HAMILTON CARTER, that she be allowed to take the graduate course in Psychology with Professor James this year, was considered and the Secretary was directed to say to Miss CARTER that such a request cannot now be granted by the University.

MEETING OF NOVEMBER 30, 1891. — Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to Mrs. HENRY DRAPER of New York for her additional gift of $833.33 received November 17, 1891, towards the expenses at the Observatory of Harvard University on account of the Draper Memorial.

The Treasurer reported that he had received through Professor PICKERING the sum of $500 as a gift from Miss CATHERINE W. BRUCE of New York for the publication of certain observations, and it was Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to Miss BRUCE for her continued liberality to the Observatory.

The following communication was received in relation to the Dudleian lecture against Catholicism:

"CAMBRIDGE, November 15, 1891.

TO THE PRESIDENT AND FELLOWS OF HARVARD COLLEGE:—

GENTLEMEN, — At a meeting held in Cambridge on the 12th of the current month by the members of the Faculties of Arts and Sciences, Law, and Divinity who presented a memorial to the President and Fellows of Harvard College on the 26th of May, 1891, urging the suppression of the Dudleian Lecture against Catholicism, it was voted to communicate to the President and Fellows the following statement:—

The members of the Faculties of Arts and Sciences, Law, and Divinity who presented a memorial to the President and Fellows of Harvard College on the 25th of May last, urging the suppression of the Dudleian Lecture against Catholicism, have received the reply made October 26, in which the President and Fellows decline 'to take the steps proposed in the remonstrance either in whole or in part.'

While the memorialists remain in the conviction that the revival and continuance of a lecture inconsistent with the sectarian character and policy of the University must be prejudicial, and while they cannot think that the method proposed by the Corporation is one which really carries out the purpose of the founder of the lectures, they see no utility in pressing views which have no likelihood of obtaining the interest and concurrence of the Corporation.

(signed) GEORGE LYMAN KITTRIDGE, Secretary."

(signed) J. C. GRAY, Chairman.

Voted, on recommendation of Professor PICKERING that the time signal service in connection with the Observatory shall cease at the end of March, 1892.

Voted, to grant the request of Professor JOHN WILLIAMS WHITE for leave of absence for the academic year 1892-93 in accordance with the rules established by this Board, May 31, 1880.

MEETING OF DECEMBER 14, 1891. — The Treasurer reported that he had received from JOHN O. SARGENT, Esq., the sum of $100 for the Sargent Prize for 1891-92, and the same was gratefully accepted.

Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to Mrs. HENRY DRAPER of New York for her additional gift of $833.33 received December 8, 1891, towards the expenses at the Observatory of Harvard University on account of the Draper Memorial.

Voted, that the thanks of the President and Fellows be sent to JOSIAH MARTIN, Esq., F.O.S., of Auckland, New Zealand, for his valuable gift to the Geological Department of Harvard College of a series of photographic views showing the terraces of Rotomohana.

The resignation of Proctor DAVID C. TORREY was accepted.

MEETING OF DECEMBER 28, 1891. — Voted, to appoint ROBERT TRACY JACKSON, S.D., Assistant in Palaeontology for 1891-92.

Notice having been received from the Secretary of the Faculty of the Museum of Comparative Zoölogy that HENRY PICKERING WALCOTT, M.D., was nominated as a member of that Faculty to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of HENRY PICKERING BOWDITCH, M.D., it was Voted, that the same be confirmed and notice thereof be transmitted to the Faculty of the Museum by the Secretary of this Board.

Voted, that the sum of $350, lately received as a gift from Mr. SCHIFF, be paid to Assistant G. A. REISNER of the Semitic department during the current academic year.

Voted, to appropriate the sum of $100 to aid Mr. HENRY F. WATERS in his genealogical researches in England.

CORRECTIONS.

1653. Ambrose, Nehemiah, and Joshua. Since the publication of the last Bulletin my attention has been called to the discovery by Mr. William S. Appleton of the parentage of the Ambrose brothers, which he described in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, July, 1888: "I have just read a will of so much interest that I must send you a note of it. Mr. Savage says in his dictionary, under the name, AMBROSE, 'JOSHUA, of wh. we gladly would kn. the f. and date of b.' 'NEHEMIAH, of unkn. parentage.' The will in question is that of Peter Ambrose of Toxteth, Lancashire, written in 1653, proved in 1654-5, in which he mentions his sons Joshua and Nehemiah. He also speaks of money advanced to Joshua and Daniel Henshaw, sons of William Henshaw, late of Toxteth, 'who are now in New England.'"
  1878. McFaden, Robert Dean, b. 5 December, 1858. [Bulletin, January, 1891.]
  1. 1863. Wolfe, Charles Spyker, d. at Harrisburg. [Bulletin, October, 1891.]

SUPPLEMENTARY LIST OF DEATHS OF GRADUATES OF THE LAW SCHOOL RECENTLY ASCERTAINED.

* * The deaths of many of the older graduates of the Law School, especially those of Southern and Western students, were unknown to officers of the School or of the College, and were unrecorded in the triennial and quinquennial catalogue down to the issue of 1885, although it was apparent from a comparison of the percentage of deaths in the College and Schools, that more law graduates must have died than were so marked. When Mr. ARNOLD, Librarian of the Law School, undertook the preparation of the General Catalogue of that School, which appeared in 1888, he began at once to receive information of deaths previously unknown. A few of these were printed in the Bulletin for May, 1888, but the great number reported, and the need of further investigation to supply or confirm details, made it desirable to defer publication here for a time. All the information obtained was, however, printed in the Commencement Necrologies of 1888, 1889, 1890. The present list gives all these deaths not already printed in the Bulletin, revised by the latest information in Mr. ARNOLD'S hands; in a few cases such information has corrected or supplemented notices already printed in the Bulletin, and such notices have been reprinted in the more correct form.

Voted, That this Board has received with much satisfaction the communication presented to the President and Fellows by the members of the D. K. E. Society, and that it relies on the honor and good faith of the present members of the D. K. ## NOTES ON SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

TO BE FOUND IN THE

PUBLIC LIBRARIES OF THE UNITED STATES.

In March, 1889, a circular letter of enquiry was sent to all the libraries in the United States of ten thousand volumes and upwards, and to such smaller ones as were thought to contain material that might contribute to the object in view. The circular was as follows:—

The Library of Harvard University desires to publish as one of its Bibliographical Contributions a list of the principal libraries in the United States which possess extensive and valuable collections of works in one or more special departments, with notes in regard to these special collections stating briefly their character and extent. The object of such a publication is to show scholars and investigators where they are most likely to find material connected with the subject of their studies.

I have the honor to request your coöperation to this end and beg that you will furnish me information for this purpose in regard to the library under your charge. It is impossible for me, of course, to give any precise measure of the extent or value a collection should have in order to be included with advantage in such a list. It must depend largely on the character of the subject, but, in general, information is desired concerning any specialty for which your library has had exceptional opportunity or has made distinct efforts to gather material. In the case of libraries devoted to medicine, law, theology, etc., to which this circular may be sent, the enquiry is directed not so much to their collections taken as a whole as to the separate parts in which they may be exceptionally strong, and so in all cases, the more precise and limited the subjects mentioned, the more valuable will be the information to the special student, e.g. the fact that a library has 200 volumes of Miltoniana is more to the point than that it has 5000 volumes of English literature.

A large number of replies to this circular were received, but stress of other work made it necessary to lay them aside for a time. At length in the spring of 1892 the task could be resumed; circulars were sent again to those libraries which had not answered the earlier application, and from nearly all of them replies were received.

The Notes which follow have been compiled from the information thus obtained, and the printer's proof has been submitted in every case to the librarian or other responsible officer for correction and completion to date. The statements may therefore be considered as authoritative, except in the case of one library from which no reply was received, but which the compilers were unwilling to omit from their list. The account of the Lenox Library in New York, the most noted for its special collections in the United States, has been drawn from such trustworthy sources as were accessible, and it is hoped is not seriously deficient or incorrect.

It is evidently impossible to fix any standard by which to measure and compare the special collections of different libraries. The estimate of their importance has been necessarily left to the librarian, the result of which is that in some cases subjects are not mentioned which well deserve to be, while in others, collections of relatively small extent are given an importance which does not properly belong to them. On the other hand the compilers have not hesitated to omit from the reports sent them items which seemed to them unimportant, and occasionally to leave out a library altogether, even though the librarian has been at some pains to furnish them with information.

For the evident incompleteness and unevenness of these Notes, the compilers desire to offer their apologies. Such shortcomings, however, they feel are to no small degree inevitable in a new undertaking of this kind, and they hope that, should this first attempt be found of real service to scholars, they may be able at some future time, with the continued coöperation of the libraries of the country, to make a second edition more complete and systematic.

The Index includes the names of all topics referred to in the Notes, the names of private owners whose collections have passed into the possession of public libraries, and the names of the libraries themselves when not derived from the name of the place where they are situated.

To the many librarians whose ready help and obliging answers have made the accomplishment of their task possible, the compilers beg to return their grateful acknowledgments.

WILLIAM COOLIDGE LANE,
CHARLES KNOWLES BOLTON.

Later accessions are recorded only in its manuscript catalogue.

Special attention has been given to forming a collection on the Civil war (1861-65), which now amounts to 1900 vols. and 4800 pams.

The Dowse library, formed by Thomas Dowse of Cambridge, is a collection of best editions and rarities in English literature, mainly, with some examples of early Americana. A catalogue was printed in 1856; and again in 1870.

The library has a cabinet of historical relics, coins, medals, etc., relating to New England personages and events; and its gallery of portraits embraces oil paintings, miniatures, and early engravings of many distinguished New Englanders, of the Colonial and later periods, besides some others not of New England. A catalogue of these was printed in 1885. The Society also preserves photographs of its members.

The library also contains probably the largest mass of historical MSS. possessed by any similar American society, going back to the earliest periods of American history, and includes the papers and notes gathered by James Savage, in the preparation of his "Genealogical Dictionary of New England," and the collection of original papers and copies formed by Francis Parkman in the pursuit of his historical researches. A merely tentative list of these manuscripts, as they existed in 1868, is given in the Proceedings of the society, vol. x. p. 158, etc.; but the ms. indexes kept in the library must be consulted for better knowledge of them. A calendar of them is in preparation. Certain indications of them will be found here and there, particularly under Massachusetts, in the appendix on ms. sources of American history in vol. viii. of the "Narrative and Critical History of America."

A collection of the bulletins of agricultural experiment stations in the United States and Canada will be made as complete as possible. A catalogue of the library was printed in 1873, and a card catalogue is being prepared.

From the formation of the Society in 1829 to 1869 books were purchased from the general funds. Beginning with 1869 the income of the Stickney Fund, amounting to $700 per annum, the gift of Josiah Stickney, Esq. ex-President of the society, with an annual appropriation of $300, has been applied to the purchase of books. The titles are included in the printed Supplement of 1866.

Mathematics and astronomy (Bowditch library), now 5509 vols. The nucleus of this collection was the bequest of Nathaniel Bowditch in 1858; it has been increased by members of his family, particularly by J. Ingersoll Bowditch, who gave $500 a year during his life and left a bequest of $10,000 at his death in 1889.

The Ticknor library of Spanish and Portuguese books, 5981 vols., the bequest of George Ticknor in 1871, with a fund of $4000 for additions. A catalogue was printed in 1879.

The Barton library of Shakespeariana and early and rare editions of English drama and poetry, also early French literature in choice bindings, 13,740 vols., collected by Thomas P. Barton, and purchased by the library in 1873. See a preliminary notice of it in the Bulletin, ii. 164; a catalogue was printed in 1880-88.

The Hunt library of works relating to the West Indies and slavery therein, about 700 vols., besides mss. and charts, bequeathed by Benj. P. Hunt, formerly of Port au Prince, in 1877.

Benjamin Franklin: 465 vols. The nucleus of this collection was the gift by Dr. S. A. Green in 1880 of 140 books and pams., with eighty different portraits and engravings. A catalogue of works written by, printed by, and relating to Franklin, was printed in the Bulletin in 1882-83, and the Trustees desire to add to the library's collection everything not now included there. A fund of $2000 is devoted to it. A catalogue of the Franklin portraits in the possession of the library will be issued in 1892.

Dr. W. E. Channing's library, 285 vols. and 2259 pams., was presented by his heirs in 1871. It is principally devoted to theology, and illustrates very fully the phases of the Unitarian controversy of Dr. Channing's day.

Mrs. Louise C. Palfrey has just presented 287 vols. of works upon military history, intended as the foundation of a military collection, to be known as the Twenty-first Regiment library.

The Gen. Sylvanus Thayer library of military science, 183 vols., received in 1872. Gen. Thayer was also the library's adviser in selecting the military books at the beginning.

The Thayer library; 890 vols., given by Miss Eliza Mary Thayer of Roxbury, in 1877; afterwards increased by her sisters, and now numbering 3963 vols. The collection is of a general character, but principally relates to English history, particularly in the Stuart period. It includes many extra-illustrated books, containing several thousand portraits. A catalogue of the original bequest is given in Bulletin for April, 1879, iv. 58.

The Tosti collection of engravings, given in 1869 by Thomas G. Appleton, consisting of about 10,000 prints, formerly the property of Cardinal Tosti. A catalogue of the portion contained in bound volumes (about 5100) was printed in the Bulletin, 1870, i. 221, 270; a list of the framed engravings in Bates Hall will be found in the Bulletin, 1872, ii. 47. A catalogue of the portraits was separately printed for sale.

The John A. Lewis library of early American literature, the Mathers and other early New England divines, etc., including also a set of the issues of the press of John Foster, the first printer in Boston; 600 vols., the gift of Mrs. John A. Lewis. The purchases made at the Barlow sale and the books of this collection, have greatly strengthened the library in Americana. A catalogue will be published in 1892.

Methodism: the library of the Rev. Chester Field was bought in 1864.

The Patent library (4269 vols.) receives the patent specifications from the United States and British governments. The library also possesses a complete set of the French patent specifications and the German reports of late years.

Congressional documents: a set based on the collections made by Peter Force, Edward Everett, and Josiah Quincy, and said to be the most complete in the country. The Index and Supplement to the Bates Hall Catalogue afford under "United States" an index down to 1866, which has been continued in a ms. index. The Parliamentary sessional papers of Great Britain are received as issued.

For many years it has been the policy of the library to make special collections of newspapers, pamphlets, etc., in relation to notable current events, such as the assassination of President Lincoln, the election of General Grant, the death of Edward Everett, the Portland fire, the Humboldt anniversary, Decoration Day of May 1869, the semi-centennial of the Odd-Fellows, etc.

Boston, Mass. — STATE BOARD OF HEALTH. (Samuel W. Abbott, Secretary of the Board.)

The library of the Board contains 2500 vols. and 2000 pages on public hygiene, with a card catalogue only, and is for reference but not for general circulation. Some of the subjects treated are water-supply, sewerage, inspection of food and drugs, school hygiene, infectious diseases, disposal of the dead, offensive trades, health of workmen, and hygiene of workshops and tenements.

There are included in the library full sets of reports of all the State Boards of Health, the National Board of Health, the medical officers' reports of the Privy Council (England), the Local Government Board and the Royal Health Board (Germany), health reports of cities and towns of Mass. and other places, American and foreign; many parliamentary documents upon sanitary matters; water-supply and sewerage reports of cities and towns of Mass., with maps and plans; American and foreign sanitary journals, etc.

Boston, Mass. — STATE LIBRARY. (C. B. Tillinghast, Librarian.)

Six important departments are very complete in the State Library, and additions are continually made:

Statutes of the United States and of all the states and territories.

Laws of foreign countries: about 1200 vols., perhaps the finest collection in the United States except that at Washington, including the statutes, codes, etc. of the following countries, namely: Ajmeer, Antigua, Argentine Republic, Austria-Hungary, Bahamas, Barbados, Belgium, Bengal, Bermudas, Bombay, Brazil, British Columbia, British Guiana, British Honduras, British Kaffraria, Canada, Cape of Good Hope, Central Provinces (India), Ceylon, Chili, Colombia, Congo, Costa Rica, Cyprus, Denmark, Ecuador, Etablissements Français de l'Inde, Falkland Islands, Fiji, France, French Guiana, Gambia, Geneva, Germany, Great Britain, Grenada, Grisonsland West, Guadeloupe, Guatemala, Hawaiian Islands, Hayti, Heligoland, Honduras, India, Isle of Man, Italy, Jamaica, Jersey, Labuan, Leeward Islands, Lower California, Lower Provinces, Malacca, Malia, Manitoba, Martinique, Mexico, Natal, Netherlands, Nevis, New Brunswick, New South Wales, New Zealand, Newfoundland, North-West Territories, North-Western Provinces (India), Nova Scotia, Ontario, Orange Free State, Oudh, Panama, Persia, Portugal, Prince Edward Island, Punjab, Quebec, Queensland, Isle de la Réunion, St. Lucia, Saint Pierre and Miquelon, Senegal, South Australia, Spain, Straits Settlements (East Indies), Switzerland, Tasmania, Trinidad, Venezuela, Victoria, Western Australia.

Local history of Massachusetts: about 2200 vols.

Genealogy: about 1100 vols.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—BROOKLYN INSTITUTE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES. (Mary I. Crandall, Librarian.)

The library, containing about 16,000 vols., is strongest in the following subjects:—

American colonial history: 860 vols.

Brooklyn, Long Island, and New York (state and city): 486 vols.

Entomology: 600 vols. and 1500 pams., periodicals, monographs, etc.

Geography: over 1100 works, containing a large collection of maps, globes, text-books, helps to teachers, books of travel and exploration, etc. Brought together as an educational collection, these books and maps were placed on public exhibition in Brooklyn and afterwards in New York and Boston, in 1891. A catalogue was printed in connection with the exhibition.

Additions are made to all of the above collections. The library has many first editions of American publications in history and literature from 1780 to 1840.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—LONG ISLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY. (Emma Toedteberg, Librarian.)

The society was organized in March, 1863, and is particularly rich in local history and genealogical collections, especially the older books, having over 5000 vols., not including English local history, of which there are several hundred volumes. Additions are constantly made.

Among the unpublished mss. in the possession of the Society are: a large portion of the papers of Henry Laurens; the correspondence of his son, Col. John Laurens; letters of R. H. Lee, Horatio Gates, and other eminent men of the period; and a series of 123 original letters of Washington, recently printed by the Society.

Brunswick, Maine.—BOWDOIN COLLEGE LIBRARY. (George T. Little, Librarian.)

Of special interest are the collections of French public documents, 1789-93, 140 vols., the gift of Hon. James Bowdoin; of the works of Joseph Priestley, 96 titles (see General catalogue, 1863); versions of the Bible, 250 vols. (Catalogue of 1863); and works relating to Maine and by Maine authors, about 1600 vols. and 2000 pams. The last two collections are increased by additions, especially that of works relating to Maine.

The library, for one of its size, is rich in collected travels, political pamphlets, English and American (1770-1810), and United States government publications.

Buffalo, N. Y.—BUFFALO HISTORICAL SOCIETY. (Geo. G. Barnum, Librarian.)

The library, principally historical, biographical, and genealogical, was formed in 1862, and its additions since then have been by donations and by exchange.

Civil war: the collection of "Lincolniana," made by the late Julius E. Francis, consists of 127 vols. relating to the history of the Civil war, 1400 illustrated envelopes used during the war, 11,822 autographs of soldiers and sailors, including members of the 43d Congress, and many relics.

Bibles: Bibles, and parts of the Bible, in twenty-eight different languages.

Newspapers: 1000 bound vols.

The library of the Society includes also the private library of the late Mrs. Millard Fillmore (800 vols. and pams.), and that of Rev. Dr. John C. Lord (8000 vols. and pams.), besides many portraits, and several cabinets containing coins, postage stamps, Egyptian antiquities, etc. A catalogue is now being made of all the possessions of the Society.

Buffalo, N. Y.—BUFFALO LIBRARY. (J. N. Larned, Superintendent.)

Has special collections in the local history and local literature of Buffalo, amounting to 1047 vols. and 1912 pams., besides 38 maps. The library also has a rather notable collection of autograph manuscripts and letters, chiefly of English and American authors. Many of the mss. are of entire works, including, among others, the original of Emerson's "Representative Men."

Burlington, Vt.—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT—GEORGE P. MARSH LIBRARY. (Henry A. P. Torrey, Librarian.)

Of the 44,000 vols. now belonging to the University about 13,000, once the private library of Hon. George P. Marsh, U. S. Minister to Italy, were purchased and presented by Hon. Frederick Billings of Woodstock, Vt. Among these there are:—

In Italian, including Italian dialects and philology, 2400 vols.

In the literature and philology of the Danish, Swedish, and Icelandic languages, about 2000 vols.

In forestry 140 vols., with other special collections in physical geography, travels, the Catalan dialect, and other European dialects, Early English, Dutch, and works on the Catholic church. A catalogue of the Marsh library, compiled by H. L. Koopman, is now in press.

Cambridge, Mass. — HARVARD UNIVERSITY LIBRARY. (Justin Winsor, Librarian.)

*. The distinction between the University Library and the College Library should be borne in mind. The former embraces the College (or central) library, as well as the nine departmental libraries (Law School, Divinity School, Museums, Astronomical Observatory, Herbarium, etc.), eight laboratory libraries, and thirteen classroom or secondary libraries.

The COLLEGE LIBRARY (in Gore Hall). The collection relating to American history, biography, genealogy, and geography numbers 22,348 vols., of which 16,762 relate to the United States. This is independent of contributions to American history which may be contained in collections too general to be classed as Americana, and it does not include the official publications of the federal and state governments and of cities and towns. The basis of the collection was the libraries formed by Professor Ebeling and David B. Warden, the former the gift of Col. Israel Thorndike of Boston in 1818, and the latter presented by Mr. Samuel A. Eliot in 1823. (Nar. and Crit. Hist. America, vol. i. p. iii.) Pains have been taken constantly to fill such gaps as exist. The early ecclesiastical history of America, particularly of New England, so intimately connected with the civil government, is also not included in this enumeration, but will be found with the later history in the ecclesiastical department of the College Library, supplementing that in the library of the Divinity School.

The collection of books and tracts illustrating the rise and growth of American slavery numbers 869 vols. as bound, much the larger part being volumes made up of many pamphlets bound together. In the subject catalogue the titles under the heading Slavery number about 2300. The collection is largely the result of the assiduity of the late Charles Sumner and of Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson.

The Library has also a very good and growing collection of British local history and topography; and that part of the collection illustrating specially British municipal history is represented in Bibliographical Contributions, No. 43, edited by Dr. Charles Gross, an authority in this field.

In the sources of mediaeval European history the library has all the large or important collections relating to countries as a whole, and many of the more useful and extensive documentary works relating to single cities and monasteries. The latter branch of the subject has been much strengthened by the recent gift of several hundred volumes relating to early German history and law from Denman W. Ross of Cambridge, and by the bequest of Professor E. W. Gurney's private library.

In the Roman or Civil law the catalogue of the Library shows about 950 vols. Professor Gurney's library has also notably increased this department, many of his books being still uncatalogued and not included in the number given above. Many of the volumes placed on the shelves under Roman political antiquities stand in close relation to this subject, but are likewise not included in the number mentioned.

The collection of United States Congressional documents numbers 3900 vols., and is one of the most complete in the country; many of the earlier and rarer volumes having been supplied with the Ebeling library.

The collection of books by and relating to Dante numbers 1372 vols. In 1881 Professor Charles Eliot Norton gave the larger part of his valuable collection on Dante to the College Library, and since that time the Dante Society has made an annual appropriation for the purchase of books in this department. It has but little manuscript material, but of printed books it has everything of the first importance required by scholars for critical study, and a large proportion of the supplementary and expository writings on Dante and his times. No. 34 of the Bibliographical Contributions published by the Library is Mr. Wm. C. Lane's "Dante Collections in the Harvard College and Boston Public Libraries" (Cambridge, 1890). This enumeration includes additional titles from the private collections of Professor Norton and the late Professor George Ticknor.

A collection of books by and upon Milton, numbering 278 vols., is largely made up of one formed by the late George Ticknor.

The Library received under the will of Thomas Carlyle his collection of books on Cromwell and Frederick the Great, numbering 427 vols., which are enumerated in No. 26 of the Bibliographical Contributions. At a later day some additions were made to Mr. Carlyle's own bequest by Mrs. Alexander Carlyle, and these books are noted in the University Bulletin, No. 52.

The collection of folk lore and traditional romances number 5822 vols., and is supposed to be the largest in existence. Its Slavic section is remarkably good. Professor F. J. Child has based upon the collection his well-known English and Scottish Popular Ballads, the final edition of which is now nearly completed. There are included in the collection a very large number of Chap-books; and manuscript copies of all the important collections of popular ballads in the British Museum, which have not been printed. The large collection of French popular ballads (with music) which was made by a commission appointed by Napoleon III. has also been copied.

The collection of classical and classical philology numbers 11,848 vols., and is supplemented by the collection of the Classical Seminary in Harvard Hall, and by illustrative archaeology in the archaeological and art classifications of the College Library.

The collection of Sanskrit literature includes about 400 printed texts, about 500 mss., the gift of Mr. Fitzedward Hall, and about 500 more mss. purchased in India by Professor Lanman for the Library. Many of the printed books were given by the late Henry W. Wales, and his brother, Mr. Geo. W. Wales, has since annually given $200 to increase the collection.

The Library is well supplied, particularly with the older books, in all departments of theology and Biblical criticism. Including the collection in the Divinity School library, it probably excels any other in Unitarian theology and controversial works. It has a very fine collection of the rarest Bibles selected by the late George Livermore and Ezra Abbot, authorities in the bibliography of the Scriptures. Professor Abbot's private library was bequeathed to the Divinity School and still farther enriched this department. The collection of printed sermons probably numbers about 10,000.

In 1888 Mr. John Harvey Treat presented his collection of works on ritualism and doctrinal theology, numbering 587 titles. It is catalogued in Bibliographical Contributions, No. 36.

The late President of the College, Jared Sparks, left his collection of manuscripts—mostly copies, but including some originals, such as the papers of Gov. Bernard, one of the royal governors of Massachusetts—to the Library. A calendar of them, and of other minor collections of papers relating to American history, constitutes No. 22 of the Library's Bibliographical Contributions. The most considerable collection of original manuscripts in this field, possessed by the Library, is the papers of Arthur Lee, which were left to the Library in 1827; two other parts of the same collection being given at the same time to the American Philosophical Society in Philadelphia and to the library of the University of Virginia. A calendar of the portion in Harvard College Library is given in No. 8 of the Bibliographical Contributions.

No. 6 of the Library's Bibliographical Contributions (1879) shows part of the books and autographs bequeathed to the Library by Hon. Charles Sumner. The collection is a general one, but embraces many books of curious and bibliographical interest, and interesting autographs.

The Library has some treasures in American aboriginal linguistics. Chief among them is the Abenaki Dictionary of Sebastian Rasle, which was printed under the editing of John Pickering in 1833 by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences (see Bibliographical Contributions, No. 22, p. 86).

The linguistic contributions to the study of the Delaware and other aboriginal languages of the Indians living in the present Middle States, by David Zeisberger, a Moravian missionary, were given to the Library in 1845. See Bibliographical Contributions, No. 22, pp. 86-88, and the enumeration in J. C. Pilling's Algonquian Languages (Washington, 1892).

The most interesting of the manuscripts of a character other than American history—and the Library has a small collection—is perhaps a book in which the poems of Shelley when he composed them were written either by himself or by his wife. This manuscript is described, with a fac-simile of the poem "To a Skylark," in Bibliographical Contributions, Nos. 30 and 35.

The collection of loose maps is the largest in the country, numbering about 12,000 sheets,—the basis of the collection being that formed by the late Professor Ebeling of Germany, which came to the Library with his collection of Americana in 1818. It has been added to from time to time, particularly so as to complete the cartographical publications of the United States government and the ordnance surveys of the principal European countries. The collection of bound maps and atlases is also large (about 700 vols.), including such fac-simile collections as those of Santarem, Nordenskiöld, etc., and the printed editions of the early geographers like Ptolemy, Mela, Wytfliet, Münster, Mercator, Ortelius, etc. In maps illustrating the historical geography of America, the collection (to judge from a comparison made with its printed catalogue) is quite as good as that of the British Museum. Efforts have been made to procure all printed books which are useful in facilitating the use of the collection. There is a ms. subject catalogue of the maps.

— — — DIVINITY SCHOOL. (R. S. Morison, Librarian.)

This library, containing about 23,000 vols., though mainly devoted to theology and Biblical and ecclesiastical subjects, is not limited to those departments. Its theological collection has already been spoken of above. A collection of the works of Joseph Priestley and the Greek Testaments deserve separate and special mention. In both subjects the additional works in the College Library form important supplements.

— — — LAW SCHOOL. (J. H. Arnold, Librarian.)

The aim of the library of the Law School is to maintain and constantly increase a useful working collection for the benefit of the School. It possesses a very large and valuable collection of works on the Roman law, an unusually full collection of treatises on Scotch law down to 1840 (over 400 vols.), and a very good collection of works on modern German law, especially on commercial law, of nearly 1000 vols.

While the library is very complete in its reports of the various Courts of the United States and of foreign countries, it cannot be said to differ in this respect from other important law libraries in this country.

In one respect, however, the library is believed to be exceptional, namely, in the quality and number of its editions of important legal treatises. Much care has been taken to accomplish this result, which is of especial use to students, writers, and investigators, who often find in an early or particular edition of a work matter of especial interest and value, not to be found elsewhere.

— — — MUSEUM OF COMPARATIVE ZOOLOGY. (Miss F. M. Slack, Librarian.)

This library, of about 22,000 vols., is almost exclusively devoted to zoology and geology. Its nucleus was the private library of Professor L. G. de Koninck, collected between 1835 and 1860. The books on embryology number about 300 vols. and 1000 pams. The entomological collection is described by Mr. S. H. Scudder in Bibliographical Contributions, No. 11, as the most valuable in America. It includes the private collection of Professor H. A. Hagen, and in 1880 contained about 2000 vols. and 3000 pams. It has many sets of the older magazines, many works of great rarity, and is particularly rich in papers on the Neuroptera and Pseudoneuroptera and in the bibliography of entomology. In the College Library are some 500 vols. more relating to insects, mainly selected while Dr. Harris was librarian. The private library of Mr. S. H. Scudder should also be mentioned here; it contained, in 1880, 765 vols. and nearly 2000 pams., and is particularly rich in works relating to Orthoptera and to fossil insects.

The private geological and geographical library of Professor J. D. Whitney will eventually become a part of the Museum library. It consists of some 10,000 vols. and contains many scarce pamphlets, the reports of State and United States geological surveys and works on geology, palaeontology, mineralogy, and geography.

— — — PEABODY MUSEUM OF AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY AND ETHNOLOGY. (F. W. Putnam, Curator.)

The library of the Museum (1232 vols. and 1340 pams.) forms a useful working collection of books on archaeology, ethnology, and anthropology, but does not call for special notice. The principal anthropological and ethnological journals are regularly received.

— — — ASTRONOMICAL OBSERVATORY. (E. C. Pickering, Director.)

The library of the Observatory contains in all 7000 vols., and is strong, through the exchange of its Annals, as well as by purchase, in the publications of astronomical, meteorological, and magneto-electric observations. Geology and physics (more particularly those branches connected with optics) should also be mentioned.

The Observatory has a special fund for the maintenance of a mountain observatory, and in connection with this work provides the library with the literature relating to the geography of mountainous countries throughout the world. The collection of books in practical mathematics, including old astronomical treatises, is of some importance.

The library at present is being put in more serviceable condition, arranged according to subjects, with accompanying lists.

— — — LIBRARY OF THE GREAT HERBARIUM. (B. L. Robinson, in charge.)

This library contains about three vols. and three pams. Its nucleus was Professor Asa Gray's private botanical library of some 1000 vols. and about the same number of pams., which was presented by him to the Herbarium in 1864. The same year John A. Lowell also presented his botanical library of 350 vols., including a number of works of especial rarity and value.

The branch in which the Herbarium library is strongest is the systematic botany of phanerogams and cones illustrative of this subject. The collection of botanical periodicals is also very good. While the departments of cryptogams, structural, and physiological botany take a secondary place, they are nevertheless represented by several hundred volumes and many pamphlets. For works on these subjects the College Library should also be consulted.

Bibliographical Contribution, No. 9 (1877), is a list of the floras of different countries by Professor G. L. Goodale, almost all of which are either in the Herbarium or the College Library.

Canton, N. Y. — ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY — HERRING LIBRARY. (Profs. C. K. Gaines and H. P. Forbes, Librarians.)

Contains the Credner collection, 2850 vols., the library of Prof. K. A. Credner of Gießen, Germany, formed between 1810 and 1863, and rich in works on dogmatic theology of the Reformation era; the Lavland collection, 600 vols., mostly philological, formed by Rev. S. O. Loveland; and a large collection of Uncle Richard periodicals and pamphlets of the period from 1800 to 1850. Whole number of bound volumes about 11,000, and nearly as many pamphlets.

Carbondale, Ill. — SOUTHERN ILLINOIS NORMAL UNIVERSITY. (John T. Gaffrath, Acting Librarian.)

Began in 1883 to make a special collection of works on pedagogy and education in general.

1850 vols. and 1000 pams. are now collected, and it is intended to make the University a centre in southern Illinois for this kind of educational information. The library contains in all 10,286 vols. and 2214 pams.

Carson City, Nevada. — STATE LIBRARY. (J. Ponjade, Librarian.)

The library, created by statute of 1865, has a very good law department; and all the Nevada newspapers since 1883, in 400 vols.

A catalogue of the library appeared in 1890.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa. — IOWA MASONIC LIBRARY. (T. S. Parvin, Librarian.)

This is the oldest Grand Lodge library in the country, organized in 1844, and founded by the present librarian. It now contains 12,000 vols. of masonic and anti-masonic works, including the proceedings of all Masonic Grand Bodies of the world and many periodicals. Antiquarian researches and archæology are well represented also, works on ruins, pyramids, temples, and the mound builders. There is a fair but varying appropriation each year; by this means and by gifts the additions reach 300 and 400 vols. yearly. A full catalogue was printed in 1873 and a supplement in 1883.

The library has about 100 mss., mostly of a Masonic character, a few relating to the early history of Iowa; also a large collection of masonic and government medals, engravings, and photographs of masons, and autographs of distinguished men and masons.

Charleston, S. C. — CHARLESTON LIBRARY SOCIETY. (Miss Anne E. Pinckney, Librarian.)

The library was founded in 1748, and has files of the local newspapers from the year 1732, more or less complete; including the Charleston City Gazette, 1788-1816; the South Carolina Gazette, 1732-1786; South Carolina Journal, 1768-1774; and the Charleston Courier, 1803-1889. Of these files, numbering over 500 vols., a catalogue was printed in 1884.

Chicago, Ill. — CHICAGO COLLEGE OF PHARMACY. (A. E. Hiss, Actuary.)

The library (about 2000 vols.) consists principally of books on chemistry, pharmacy, physics, microscopy, geology, and botany, and includes many old works.

The standard reference books and very complete files of scientific journals and proceedings of societies add much to its value.

Chicago, Ill. — CHICAGO HISTORICAL SOCIETY. (John Moses, Librarian.)

The Society, since its new building was erected in 1877, has increased its library at the rate of about 1500 vols. and 2000 pams. a year, and now owns 20,000 vols. and 45,000 pams. and papers, including 71 vols. of mss. There is a special fund for the purchase of books amounting to $13,500.

In Western Americana there are 1300 vols. and 2000 pams.; and about one half that number of historical society publications and genealogies; also 3300 bound vols. of newspapers and periodicals.

The Society has a large collection of maps and atlases, many coins and engravings, and 32 oil portraits.

Chicago, Ill. — NEWBERRY LIBRARY. (W. F. Poole, Librarian.)

Has special collections in bibliography, Americana, early printed books, and music.

An entire musical library of Italian books at Florence was purchased, including many valuable volumes; these with large additions recently received make the musical library equal to any in the country. A detailed statement of works in this department appeared in the Nation, May 2, 1889.

The library of a well-known collector in Cincinnati has been bought, consisting of early editions of the Bible, Dante, Shakespeare, and other authors, with specimens of binding from the time of Grolier to Trautz-Bauzonnet and the modern French art-binders.

Chicago, Ill. — PUBLIC LIBRARY. (Frederick H. Hild, Librarian.)

The library contains about 175,000 vols., the large number of books in foreign languages illustrating its cosmopolitan character. Its collection of Bohemian literature, over 3900 vols., is probably larger than any other in the United States, and its Scandinavian literature exceeds 4000 vols.

The principal specialty of the library is its periodicals, numbering 19,000 vols., containing almost every periodical given in Poole's Index, with complete sets of many of the best foreign reviews, and the transactions of learned societies.

In patents there is a complete set of British patents (including specifications and drawings) from 1617 to date; also American, French, Canadian and German patent reports.

The library is strong also in bibliography, Americana, genealogy, fine arts, general reference books, and the literature of the Civil War.

Chicago, Ill. — UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO. (—, Librarian.)

The University has purchased the collection of books made by the German publishing firm of S. Calvary & Co., numbering about 60,000 vols. and 40,000 pams. This library contains among other valuable material:—

200 mss. of the 8th-19th centuries, including three original letters of Raphael.

1600 vols. in paleography.

5,000 vols. of the publications of European learned societies. Also many philosophical, philological and scientific journals of Europe and America.

5,000 vols. of Greek and Roman archaeological works.

HARVARD NECROLOGY.

Compiled by WILLIAM HOPKINS TILLINGHAST,

Assistant Librarian,

Editor of the Quinquennial Catalogue.

*.* Graduates and Class Secretaries are requested to send to the writer class reports, both new and old, and all newspapers which contain obituaries and other notices of Harvard alumni. It is important to have the places of birth and death, and, in addition to the year, to have the month and day of the month.

When the place of birth or death is unknown, the place of residence at the time of entering College or of decease, if known, is given within brackets.

The figures denoting age indicate the last completed year of life.
